‘Weddings on the Parkland’

HANLITH HALL ESTATE

Nestled in the heart of the North Yorkshire Dales National Park, near the charming village of Malham, Hanlith Hall is a magnificent 17th-century stately home set within 150 acres of unspoiled countryside.

Our private 50-acre parkland provides a breath taking setting for marquee weddings, surrounded by ancient woodlands, rolling fields, and grazing livestock.

The tranquil River Aire runs alongside the estate, creating a serene and timeless atmosphere, while the grand hall itself forms an elegant backdrop for your special day.

At Hanlith Hall, we believe every wedding should be as unique as the couple celebrating it. We offer bespoke packages tailored to your vision, catering for guest numbers from 50 to 200.

Due to estate commitments, we will be hosting a limited number of ‘Weddings on the Parkland’ in August 2025/2026, ensuring each couple receives exceptional service and exclusivity.

To reserve your date, we recommend scheduling a viewing at your earliest convenience.

An Exclusive Venue for a Limited Number of Weddings.

Weddings on the Parkland

Welcome to a celebration like no other, set against the breath taking beauty of the North Yorkshire Dales. Our marquee weddings seamlessly combine natural charm with timeless elegance, framed by the historic architecture of Hanlith Hall. Your special day will unfold within our peaceful 50-acre parkland, surrounded by rolling fields, ancient woodlands, and the soothing flow of the River Aire. Whether you envision an intimate gathering or a grand celebration, our bespoke service ensures every detail is tailored to reflect your unique love story, making your day as unforgettable as the stunning setting.

Our fully equipped marquee comes with everything you need, including tables, chairs, heating, festoon lighting, flooring, and luxury WC cabins, all designed to create a comfortable yet stylish atmosphere. With food and drink packages starting from £50 per person, we also offer a dry hire option to suit your needs.
